A musical staff with five horizontal lines and four spaces. The letter 'A' is written in a large, bold, black font at the start of the staff. Following the letter, there are four identical melodic patterns. Each pattern begins with a note on the top line (A), moves down to a note on the middle line (G), and then down again to a note on the bottom line (F). Vertical stems extend downwards from each note.

A horizontal musical staff consisting of five lines. On the far left is a bass clef. To its right is a key signature of one sharp. Further to the right is a time signature of common time. Along the staff, there are ten small black dots, each representing a note. The dots are evenly spaced along the length of the staff.

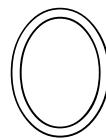

A horizontal line representing a musical staff. Ten small black dots are positioned vertically along this line, spaced evenly apart, representing stems or note heads.

A handwritten musical score consisting of a single melodic line. It features a staff with five horizontal lines and four spaces. The notes are represented by small black dots. The first measure contains two notes: a note with a vertical stem extending downwards followed by a note with a vertical stem extending upwards. The second measure contains three notes: a note with a vertical stem extending downwards, a note with a vertical stem extending upwards, and a note with a vertical stem extending downwards. The third measure contains two notes: a note with a vertical stem extending upwards followed by a note with a vertical stem extending downwards. The fourth measure contains one note with a vertical stem extending upwards.
